

18th June 2018

Job Description: Auto Electrician Mobile Plant

EP Industries Ltd is looking for an Auto Electrician Mobile Plant to join the team at their busy Plant in Alfreton, Derbyshire

You should have previous experience working as an Auto Electrician within a plant environment. You should hold plant maintenance or mechanical engineering qualifications along with Auto Electrical trade qualifications.

Essential Skills:

Electrical Bias.

Fitting and Assembling experience.

Experienced and competent with industrial low voltage/industrial 240v wiring.

To build mechanical assemblies.

Good Mechanical skill set.

To assemble in accordance with latest drawings and instructions

Maintains tools and equipment to ensure safe and efficient operations.

Communicates any unsafe conditions or accidents in a timely manner.

Previous experience working on Plant equipment

Preferably qualified to NVQ Level 3 or equivalent in an auto electrical engineering discipline or have served an Auto Electrical Apprenticeship.

Responsibilities:

As the Auto Electrician you will be responsible for providing electrical repairs, maintenance and servicing to heavy plant including excavators, dumpers and Road Rail vehicles

Read and understand technical drawing and specification sheets

Wiring up of Electrical components and installations of wiring looms.

Diagnostic checks, troubleshooting and rectification of vehicle electrical systems.

Ability to use hand tools to a high level of skill;

Use of special tools such as crimping devices and heat shrink guns.

Adherence to Health and Safety rules and regulations;

Working at clients sites fitting the required systems

Working with heavy plant

Main skills and experience required:

- Automotive Electrical / Vehicle technician experience of HGVS, Plant, Waste, Quarry , Mining Vehicles or similar – Not cars.
- Innovative problem solver who can generate solutions and resolve issues
- Conscientious professional who is organised and dedicated
- Motivated self-starter who takes initiative with minimal supervision
- Dependable, responsible contributor committed to excellence and success
- Team player who excels at building relationships with customers and colleagues
- Must have full UK driving license

Salary commensurate with experience.

